RENEWING
YOUR MIND ABOUT LEADERSHIP

- Watch your thoughts, for they become your words.
- Watch your words, for they become your actions.
- Watch your actions for they become your habits
- Watch your habits, for they become character.
- Watch your character, for it becomes your destiny

- “What we think, we become”

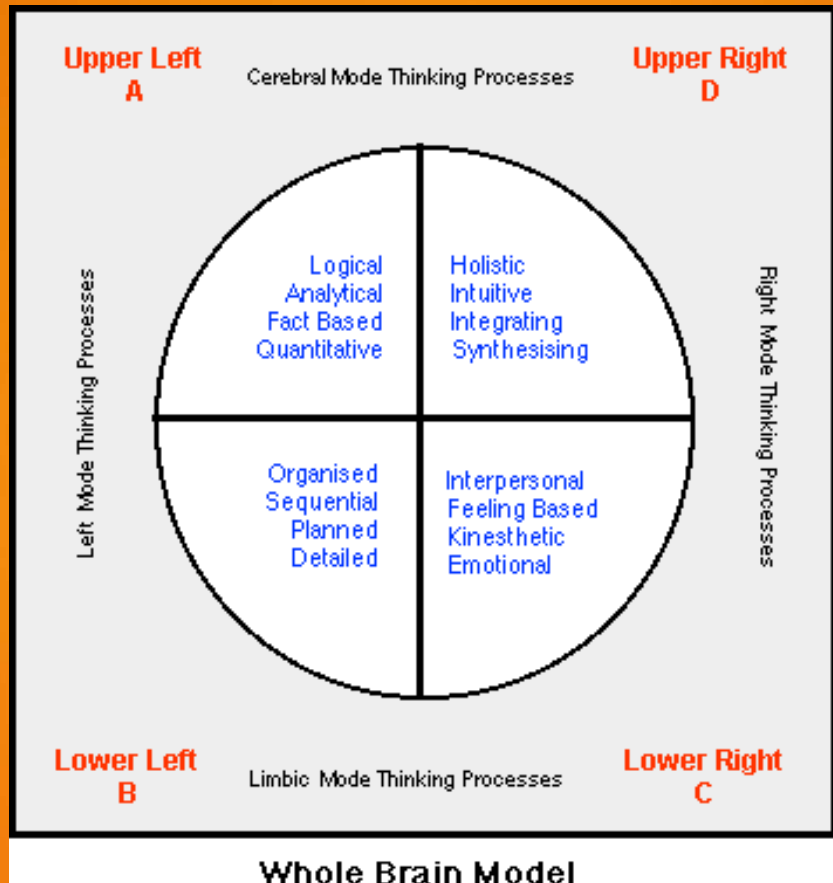

“Language shapes the way we think, and determines what we think about.”

“Let the mind of the master be the master of your mind.”

You can't go into the future with the same mindset that you have always had. In order to transition from "church" to a "kingdom" people must change their mindset.

UNLEARN

UNLEARNING is harder than learning

UNLEARN

“The illiterate of the future will not be those who can't read or write, but those who can't learn, unlearn, and relearn.”

Alvin Toffler

UNLEARN

The process of UNLEARNING may require that you get worse before you get better. You will get worse at what you have been doing only to get better at what you ought to be doing.

TEN TRACKS TO BEGIN UNLEARNING

1. Unlearn the idea that you have to motivate people. Those who lead in Kingdom must be self motivators.

2. Unlearn the concept of incentives.
There is no such thing as an incentive system, only a retention system. Those who lead in the Kingdom do so because of HIM.

3. Unlearn where you are organizationally and return to Bible based core values.

What are the core values of this Church?

Here are three helpful definitions of core values:

“The constant, passionate, biblical core beliefs that drive the ministry” (Malphurs, 1996, p. 34).

“The deep-seated, pervasive standards that influence almost every aspect of our lives: our moral judgments, our responses to others, our commitments to personal and organizational goals” (Kouzes & Posner, 1987, pp. 190-191).

“The rules or guidelines by which a corporation exhorts its members to behavior consistent with its order, security, and growth” (Quigley, 1993, p. 15).

4. Unlearn the charismatic-personality-centered model of leadership for a Team-based leadership. In the New Testament, team work is highlighted (Jesus and the Disciples; Jesus sending them 2 by 2; Paul and Barnabas; Paul and Silas, etc)

5. Unlearn the ABC measurables of church – Attendance – Buildings – Cash, and focus on developing people

You can loose 25% of your people, but only 2-3% of tithes and offering. A few kingdom minded people can accomplish more than a crowd of those with a church mindset.

6. Unlearn bricks and learn mission.

7. Unlearn major Events and discover magnet events creating authentic community. Would the community miss you if you were not here. Most churches would not be missed in a positive way. Kingdom focuses on the community and brings the community into the Kingdom.

8. Unlearn cloning and discover your own unique DNA.

What makes you unique?

9. Unlearn isolation and discover connection

10. Unlearn Church and discover Kingdom

- Watch your thoughts, for they become your words.
- Watch your words, for they become your actions.
- Watch your actions for they become your habits
- Watch your habits, for they become character.
- Watch your character, for it becomes your destiny

If Kingdom is our destiny, let's start now by changing our thoughts.
